ITEM 4.02: NON-RELIANCE ON PREVIOUSLY ISSUED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OR A RELATED AUDIT REPORT OR COMPLETED INTERIM REVIEW

Background to the Restatement

On June 11, 2014, the Company determined that due to an error in accounting for our acquisition of Crawford Mobile Install ("CMI"), the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended February 28, 2013 and February 29, 2012 should no longer be relied upon. The purpose of this restatement is to correct the accounting for our acquisition of Crawford Mobile Install ("CMI"). In the Original Filing, the acquisition of CMI was accounted for as an acquisition of a business. However, since John Crawford was our CEO at the time of the acquisition and also owned all of CMI, the acquisition should have been accounted for as a business acquired from an entity under common control according to ASC 805-50-30. We had originally recognized intangible assets and goodwill as a result of the acquisition of CMI. According to ASC 805-50-30, neither should have been recognized. As a result of the restatement, goodwill in the amount of $108,724 and intangible assets in the amount of $20,000 have been removed from assets. In addition, we recognized a loss on the acquisition of CMI in the amount of $128,724.

Effects of Restatement

Management has considered the effect of the restatement on our prior conclusions as to the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting. Management has concluded that no material weakness in internal controls over financial reporting existed as of February 28, 2013, and that our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting for such periods were therefore effective.

SIGNATURES
